SUMMER ACADEMIC COURSES

Choose from more than 1,000 courses in the arts, economics, engineering, film and tv, political science and more!

Courses are offered in six, eight or 10-week intensive sessions.

All UCLA Summer Sessions courses are university-level courses. Students may order an official UCLA transcript upon completion.

REGISTRATION

Complete the registration form online at summer.ucla.edu or use a designated overseas Registration Center. Registration Center staff can assist you with selecting courses and applying for the F-1 Visa.

A list of approved Registration Centers is available at summer.ucla.edu/internationalstudent.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

Some UCLA Summer Sessions courses have prerequisites that are indicated in the course description. Please make sure that you have experience comparable to the listed course prerequisites; there is no need to submit school transcripts.

If you are uncertain about the level of difficulty of a course, full descriptions are available at registrar.ucla.edu/academics/coursedescriptions.

GRADE REPORTS & TRANSCRIPTS

All grades earned in Summer Sessions become part of your official UCLA transcript, which shows all course work completed at UCLA.

A one-time document fee for transcript orders may be assessed to those who meet the assessment criteria.

COURSE SCHEDULE & DESCRIPTION

Beginning in January, a complete schedule of summer courses and description is available online at sa.ucla.edu/ra/public/soc.

CREDIT TRANSFER

Please consult with your home institution regarding transfer of UCLA course work.

UNITS OF CREDIT

Most Summer Sessions courses provide four units of credit. International students are required to enroll in a minimum of eight units per session, which generally means two to three courses.

ADMISSION TO UCLA

Registration in Summer Sessions does not constitute admission to UCLA.

If you would like to attend UCLA during the academic year, you should formally apply for admission through UCLA Undergraduate Admission admission.ucla.edu or Graduate Division grad.ucla.edu.

COURSE NUMBERING

Each UCLA course listing includes a number that indicates whether a course is undergraduate, graduate or professional level.

Choose from more than 1,000 courses in the arts, economics, political science, engineering, and more!
FULL-TIME STUDENT STATUS

All international (non-immigrant) students coming to the United States with the primary intention of studying are required to obtain the F-1 Student Visa, and must maintain full-time enrollment of at least eight units per session throughout the entire Summer Session period.

VISA & IMMIGRATION

In order to apply for the F-1 Student Visa at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate in your country, you first need to receive the Form I-20 (also known as Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant F-1 Student Status) from UCLA Summer Sessions.

After you enroll in a minimum of eight units, you will be sent email instructions on how to request the Form I-20. International students are required to have valid F-1 Student Visas in their passports to enter the United States. Canadian citizens do not need visas, but do need the Form I-20 for student status entry. International students are also required to have a valid passport for at least six months from the date of arrival.

More information is available at summer.ucla.edu/academiccourses/internationalstudent/visa.

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENT

All international students requesting the Form I-20 from UCLA Summer Sessions are required to submit proof of English language proficiency.

UCLA accepts the following:

- TOEFL - minimum score of 79 (ibt)
- IELTS - minimum score of 6.5
- iTEP - minimum score of 5

See website for exemptions or more information. summer.ucla.edu/academiccourses/internationalstudent/english.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Health insurance coverage is required to adequately protect students from unexpected expenses.

Summer Sessions students who have requested the Form I-20 from UCLA are automatically enrolled in a health insurance plan that meets all UCLA and immigration requirements. Health insurance coverage cannot be waived.

More information is available at summer.ucla.edu/academiccourses/internationalstudent/insurance.

TUITION & FEES

Expenses vary depending on the number of courses you choose to take and the length of your studies.

For a complete description of all course/program fees and their applications, visit summer.ucla.edu/academiccourses/internationalstudent/feesandpayment.

The estimated tuition and fees for a visiting international student taking two courses (four units each) during a six-week session are listed below. Cost for housing and living expenses are not included.

LIBRARIES
library.ucla.edu

With a collection of more than 8 million volumes, UCLA Library is ranked among the top 10 research libraries in the country. The two main collections are housed in the College Library, geared toward the undergraduate curriculum, and the Charles E. Young Research Library, which specializes in graduate research. Additionally, there are 13 special subject libraries with impressive collections in the arts, engineering, science, film and tv, law and medicine.

EVENTS & PERFORMANCES
happenings.ucla.edu

UCLA invites a wide variety of performers and lecturers to campus every year. With two museums, the Fowler and the Hammer,

as well as the Film and Television Archive (the world’s largest university-based collection of motion pictures) and the Center for the Art of Performance at UCLA (CAP UCL), summer is full of musical performances, special exhibitions and screenings.

CENTRAL TICKET OFFICE

CAMPUS SAFETY & SECURITY
ucpd.ucla.edu

UCLA works hard to ensure the well-being of all its students through a professional police department. Services include an evening van service, walking escorts, bike lockers and emergency telephones placed throughout campus.

TRANSPORTATION & PARKING
transportation.ucla.edu

Parking is assigned on a space-available basis for an additional charge. Payment is due upon receipt of the parking pass; parking contracts are issued equal to the length of your enrollment in Summer Sessions. Public transportation is also available near and around campus for commuters or for the purpose of visiting local attractions.

CODE OF CONDUCT
deanofstudents.ucla.edu

As members of the UCLA community, summer
students have the same rights and privileges as current admitted UCLA

students and are held to the same standards of conduct. The UCLA Student Code of Conduct mandates a safe, supportive and inclusive campus community that engages students to foster

their academic success,

personal growth and responsible citizenship.

Behavior governed by the

UCLA Student Code of Conduct includes academic honesty, treatment of others, health and safety,

use of resources and use of alcohol and controlled substances.

UCLA’s reputation for academic excellence and institutional integrity is of paramount importance, and UCLA does all within its power to maintain its standards. Visit the Dean of Students website for more information.

LOS ANGELES AND BEYOND

WESTWOOD VILLAGE
Located just south of campus, Westwood Village is designed around student tastes and needs. It has three major grocery stores and dozens of restaurants and cafés. Among its movie theaters is the Mann Village Theatre, which frequently hosts movie premieres.

The Geffen Playhouse puts on plays that are as inventive as they are star-studded. UCLA’s own Hammer Museum showcases art and innovative programming. Not far from the village — just a few minutes by bus on the other side of the 405 Freeway — is the Getty Center.

BEVERLY HILLS
Just a couple of miles from UCLA, you’ll find Beverly Hills and its famed Rodeo Drive. The city is home to tree-lined boulevards, carefully-kept mansions and high end retailers. If shopping or locating celebrity homes isn’t your thing, you can take in a film screening at the Museum of Television and Radio.

SANTA MONICA
What was once a sleepy beach town is now a vibrant city between UCLA and the Pacific Coast. In addition to Santa Monica’s beaches and the famed Santa Monica Pier, you can stroll Main Street, lined with shops and art galleries or the Third Street Promenade, an upscale complex with a broad collection of award-winning restaurants and more than 200 shops.

HOLLYWOOD
The Hollywood neighborhood of Los Angeles is known for the glamour of the TV and movie industry. The neighborhood lies about 8 miles northwest of downtown Los Angeles in the foothills of the Santa Monica Mountains. Places to visit in Hollywood include: Capital Records, the Chinese Theatre, the Sunset Strip, Walk of Fame, Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood Bowl and others. This area delivers a wealth of famous sites.

VENICE
Developer Abbot Kinney was inspired by New York’s Coney Island when he designed Venice, California as a beach resort, complete with a casino, a saltwater pool and a pier full of restaurants and other amusements.

Huge canals were designed to imitate the Italian city, along with a beachfront boardwalk, which is home to Muscle Beach and some of the most colorful characters in town. Venice remains a great place for playing and people watching; the restaurants that line Abbot Kinney Boulevard are among the best in the area.

DOWNTOWN
With scores of new clubs, restaurants and arts events, downtown LA is the hub of LA nightlife. The south end of downtown is anchored by LA Live, the Microsoft Theatre (home to the Grammys) and the Staples Center (home to the Lakers, Clippers and Kings).

On the north end, explore the Frank Gehry designed Disney Hall (home to the LA Phil), MOCA, the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion (home to the LA Opera), and the Ahmanson and Taper Theaters. Two new architectural standouts — the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels and the School of Visual and Performing Arts — face each other from either side of Highway 101.

AND BEYOND...
When you are at UCLA, the rest of California is at your fingertips. To the east is the desert, with Palm Springs and its retro vibe, as well as Joshua Tree National Park, home to some of California’s best rock climbing and camping. To the south, the magic of Disneyland, the gorgeous beaches of Orange County and the wonderful climate of San Diego unfold one after another.

Drive north on Pacific Coast Highway for unforgettable ocean views, lunch in Santa Barbara and a tour of Hearst Castle. Farther north, you can explore the streets and bridges of San Francisco, the Napa Valley vineyards and breathtaking Yosemite National Park.
